

Tier 3 Vocabulary

Interpretation	The way someone thinks about something
Creator	Someone who makes something
Creation	Something that has been made by someone
Genesis	The first book in the Bible
Stewardship	To take care of something
Appreciate	To enjoy or value somebody or something
Naturally occurring	Found in nature or to do with nature
Man- made	Made by people – does not occur naturally
Thanksgiving	When Christians say thank you to God and acknowledge his gifts to humanity.

Pictures and Images

Skills and Understanding

Key Facts

- Able to re-tell the story of creation from Genesis.
- Can recognise that 'Creation' is the beginning of the 'big story' of the Bible.
- Able to say what the creation story tells many Christians about God, Creation and the world.
- Able to give examples of what some Christians do to say thank you to God.
- Can think, talk and ask questions about living in an amazing world.
- Can talk about what they can do to look after this wonderful planet.

- Christians believe that God created the world but this has lots of different meanings.
- Christians do not all think the same.
- Genesis is the first book in the Bible and tells the Christian story of creation.
- Christians believe that the world is a gift for humans.
- Most Christians believe that it is their job to look after planet earth.

